

BIG NOISE DISPATCHES: 01

Big Noise Films

Against a tide of ignorance, isolation and cynicism, Big Noise Dispatches take you around the world to look war and crisis in the face, but also to witness a shared struggle for survival and dignity.

Dispatches 01 collects 72 minutes of radical investigations, analysis and on the ground video from the Big Noise team working on four continents.

- Reconstructing Jihad: Israel's July War destroyed 130,000 homes and created 1 million refugees but failed to defeat Hezbollah. The next phase of the struggle is Hezbollah's race to rebuild its southern stronghold. (14 min)
- The Other Campaigns: Multibillionaire Carlos Slim and the guerrilla leader Subcomandante Marcos are facing off in the struggle between the Mexico above and the Mexico below. (15 min)
- Goldfinger: Big Noise and investigative reporter Greg Palast unmask "Vulture Funds"—debt speculators who are taking millions from the world's poorest countries. (12 min)
- World Bank Famine: 800,000 children face starvation in Niger, but activists say the famine is not caused by drought—it was caused by 20 years of structural adjustment programs. (5 min)
- It's The Oil Stupid: Big Noise and investigative reporter Greg Palast meet with President Chavez in a look at Latin America's Oil Superpower and the "New Latin America." (11 min)
- Mexican Election Fraud: Big Noise and investigative reporter Greg Palast uncover blatant fraud in the right wing's come-from-behind presidential victory. (15 min)
